

¿QUE ES?

- Es la posesión más valiosa ambos, de los ricos y de los pobres.
- El hombre pobre puede obtenerlo sin costo alguno.
- El hombre rico no puede comprarlo por ninguna cantidad de dinero.
- No tiene color, forma, ni sustancia, pero es fácil reconocerlo.
- Lo más que una persona da, lo más que recibe.
- Está en nuestro alrededor, pero muchos sufren por falta de ello.
- Algunos están frustrados buscándolo, y mueran sin tenerlo.
- Otros voluntariamente murieron porque lo tenían.
- Es más viejo que el mundo, sin embargo siempre nuevo, y durará por la eternidad.

¿QUE ES?

¡ES EL AMOR!

- All truths are equally true, but not all truths are equally important.
- Faith and hope are essential to salvation, but love is more important than either (1 Cor. 13:13)
- The whole Bible can be summarized in commandments about love (Matt. 22:37 - 40).
- Jesus promised that when we love one another, all men will know that we are His disciples (John 13:35).

THERE IS NOTHING MORE IMPORTANT IN YOUR LIFE, YOUR HOME, AND YOUR CHURCH THAN LOVE!

THIS BOOK CAN HELP YOU TO LOVE!

WHAT IS IT?

- It is the most valued possession of both the rich and the poor.
- The poor man can have it for nothing.
- The rich man cannot buy it for any amount of money.
- It has no shape, color, or substance, yet it is easily recognized.
- The more a person distributes it, the more he has in supply.
- It is all around us everywhere, yet many have suffered for lack of it.
- Some have frustrated their lives in search of it and perished without it.
- Others have willingly given their lives because they had it.
- It is older than the world, yet it is ever new, and will last through eternity.
- It is love
