

LETTERS FROM GRANDPA
# 68

Dearest Grandchild,

Today's letter will be short, but includes a link to a video that I hope you will take time to watch.

Grandpa loves you so much that he wants to see you in heaven. Many of you have already had someone challenge your faith. As the late Roy Weece once said, a great many young people have had their faith "smiled away". No valid arguments, or evidence, just a condescending smile! The peer pressure was bad when I was in school, but today it is much worse. That's why I pray for every one of you every day!

Jesus promised that the gates of hell would not prevail against His church. After 2,000 years of relentless attacks and persecution, the Christian faith has not been destroyed. I am convinced that it never will be.

This link is to a message delivered by a Los Angeles detective named Jim Wallace. He was himself an unbeliever until the age of 35. At that time he began to investigate to claims of Christ just as he would investigate evidence to solve a crime. He is now a fully committed believer and is teaching others how to examine and evaluate evidence just as he did.

His lecture is almost 50 minutes long but very interesting. I believe it will be worth you time to view it.

Enjoy!

I love you,
